WE CAN’T WAIT TO MEET YOU.

When you go to UC Riverside, you attend the first school in the United States to have an office dedicated to Middle Eastern student support. You’re on a campus where nearly half of the students are minorities, half qualify as low-income and more than half are the first in their families to go to college.

Doors open here. You can access leadership opportunities, conduct undergraduate research, ignite academic passions and make remarkable contributions right away. You’re at a school where students describe their administration as responsive, eager to listen and open to discourse.

Here, you’re part of the most talented, driven student body in the world — known for giving back and changing the world. We can’t wait to meet you and help you do just that.

“I love seeing the diversity in our students and the life that they bring to our university.”
MOHAMED HUSSEIN
Fourth-Year, Neuroscience

I feel happy when I’m on campus. I love seeing the diversity in our students and the life that they bring to our university. My older siblings attended UCR, and they all grew to be passionate and successful individuals. I believe UCR allowed them to find their true passions in life, and so I decided to find mine as well. UCR is a great place to find yourself and to pursue your future ambitions. If there is anything you strive for, UCR can help you achieve it. I learned how to overcome my greatest hurdles, jumping higher every time. If it weren’t for UCR, I wouldn’t have discovered the person I want to be.

CHRISTINE IBRAHIM
Fourth-Year, Sociology

Obviously my first quarter at this school was a huge transition in my life. However, UCR made it very easy to adjust. The diversity makes me feel at home and welcomed, and most importantly, valued. UCR makes me feel like I can really make a difference in the community around me. UCR is the reason why I chose to be a teacher and am now employed to work in low-income schools in the Riverside Unified School District. UCR gave me all of these opportunities to learn so much about the world, and about myself in the world. UCR was the beginning of the discovery of my purpose, and I can’t wait for what my senior year has in store!
“Prior to being a student at UCR, I never really had a Middle Eastern community in a school setting. Once I walked into the MESC for the first time, my mind was transformed.”

Christine Ibrahim, Fourth-Year, Sociology
In 2013, our students made history by developing the first Middle Eastern student center in the United States. Fourteen dedicated students worked with administration to create a space that would serve students with ties to the Middle East and North Africa. Today UCR’s Middle Eastern Student Center (MESC) serves more than 20 student organizations, a large and diverse community of Middle Eastern students and the entire UCR campus community as a whole. Born from students, MESC remains student-centered at its heart.
UCR is “recognized nationally as one of the few public research universities with no racial disparity in graduation rates.”

Reza Aslan
Professor of Creative Writing

Aslan is a renowned writer, commentator and scholar of religions. He wrote the No. 1 New York Times best-seller “Zealot: The Life and Times of Jesus of Nazareth” and international best-seller “No god but God: The Origins, Evolution, and Future of Islam.” He is a producer on “The Leftovers” and co-founded BoomGen Studios (the premiere brand for creative content from and about the Middle East).

Sherine Hafez
Associate Professor of Gender and Sexuality Studies

Hafez’s engaging lectures explore gender, women’s activism, Muslim cultures and Arab uprisings. In her book “The Terms of Empowerment: Islamic Women Activists in Egypt,” she questions the applicability of Western notions of empowerment to Islamic women’s activism. In “An Islam of Her Own: Reconsidering Religion And Secularism In Women’s Islamic Movements,” she challenges binary representations of women’s subjectivities in Islamic movements.

Reza Abbaschian
*Distinguished Professor of Mechanical Engineering
William R. Johnson Jr. Family Professor*

As former dean of the Marlan and Rosemary Bourns College of Engineering, Abbaschian was pivotal in connecting UCR to Winston Chung, who donated $10 million to establish the Winston Chung Global Energy Center. As director of the center, Abbaschian helps UCR make global contributions to sustainability and energy storage innovation.

Laila Lalami
Professor of Creative Writing

Lalami wrote “The Moor’s Account” which was a finalist for the Pulitzer Prize. It made the longlist for the Man Booker Prize and won the American Book Award, Arab American Book Award and Hurston/Wright Legacy Award (among other accolades). Her work appears in the Washington Post, the Guardian, the New York Times and more. She writes the Between the Lines column for The Nation and is a critic-at-large for the Los Angeles Times.
UCR ranks among the top 10 in the nation for significant faculty awards – ahead of Dartmouth, Duke and Yale.

WE CARE ABOUT YOUR DREAMS, NOT YOUR WALLET.

Every student, regardless of income, who dreams big and works hard should be able to graduate from the greatest public university system in the world. That’s why we will do everything we can to help you pay for school.

Apply for financial aid no matter what.

Complete a FAFSA at fafsa.ed.gov and a GPA form at csac.ca.gov to apply for the most aid. If you are an undocumented student, complete a CA Dream Act application at dream.csac.ca.gov and a GPA form at csac.ca.gov to apply for the most aid.

It costs less than you think.

70 percent of UCR undergrads have their tuition and fees fully covered by grants and scholarships, and about 85 percent of UCR undergrads get financial aid. Visit go.ucr.edu/estimate to estimate the aid that you would get at UCR.

Tuition & Fees: $13,917-15,675
Out-of-State: $43,689
Room & Board: $6,100-17,000

These are estimates based on average student expenses. Actual charges are subject to change. Get the details at admissions.ucr.edu/cost.

We’re #1 in the nation for Pell Grant performance.

That means that we admit students who meet our high standards, but aren’t necessarily wealthy. Nearly half of UCR undergrads qualify as low-income, and we enroll more low-income students than all of the Ivy League institutions combined.

UCR is a good investment.

Within five years of graduating, Pell Grant recipients typically earn more than their families. UCR students graduate with a salary potential in the top 12 percent of 461 leading public universities.
