School of Business

Get the Competitive Edge with Undergraduate Research

UCR is one of a few universities to offer research opportunities to all undergrads! This advantage catapults you to the “top of the list” for jobs and/or graduate school. Current School of Business research includes:

- Determining how women-owned businesses outpace total business growth
- Discovering how wellness programs lead to increased worker productivity
- Spotlighting the Inland Empire’s boost in business activity — thanks to a data compilation of employment, economic output, income and real estate

Success Programs

Every program is designed to help you succeed — from the moment you first step on campus to the day you graduate.

Pre-Business
Incoming first- and second-year students register for Pre-Business under the College of Humanities, Arts, and Social Sciences (CHASS). Breadth requirements and prerequisites are completed, and an application to Business is submitted at the end of the second year. Upon acceptance, students become Business Administration majors in the School of Business.

CHASS F1RST: First-Year Experience Programs
(Mandatory for first-year students)
CHASS F1RST’s Learning Communities guarantee courses and credit. First-year Pre-Business students are automatically enrolled in the Pre-Business PATH Learning Community. It offers networking with business-oriented classmates, skill development and a two-unit workshop taught by peers.

School of Business Scholarships
Find out if you qualify for a scholarship! Awards and amounts vary each year.

Business-Themed Student Organizations
Enhance your college experience, and network with peers and professional colleagues. Enjoy social activities, industry field trips, regional/national conferences and more in organizations including:
- The Accounting Society
- The American Marketing Association
- Association of Latino Professionals in Finance and Accounting (ALPFA)
- Future Business Leaders of America-Phi Beta Lambda
- Hylander Financial Group
